Local Intelligence.

The Varieties.

Is a new feature in Waco, and the crowds who visit them nightly, are large.

Remember.

The Swiss Bell Ringers on Friday and Saturday nights, at Richey Hall.

The crowds.

Is town yesterday were small, still they were here, and that is some satisfaction.

The Al Fresco.

Merchant has pulled up stakes, and is seen no more in his usual haunts, nor behind his new counters at the corner of the square.

We will have.

Some startling developments in a few days in reference to the gentlemen who live by their wits. We are under promise not to publish yet awhile.

Flournoy & Taylor.

Have instituted several suits against George Evans and the Houston and Texas Central Railroad, for refusing to ship freight, etc.

S. Johnson & Co.

The Austin street butchers and grocers, have now in store one of the best selected, and at the same time cheapest stock of provisions and general family supplies to be found in Waco.

Heavy freight.

Shipments are being made over the road to this point now. The merchants are getting in immense spring stocks.

Mr. D. W. Squires.

Of Coryville county, was in town yesterday; he confirms the report we have already had, of the splendid wheat prospects of that county.

The grove.

Is becoming beautiful in the courthouse square. Now a little judicious pruning and care of the trees, would add very greatly to the appearance of the city, especially of the square.

The Hogs and the Graveyard.

Last Sunday we paid a visit to the beautiful resting place of the dead. We found that tender hands had, with the opening of spring, placed sweet flowers up in the graves of the dead. We found where other tender and skillful hands had planted beautiful flowers and shrubbery near the graves of the loved and lost. But alas, we found other graves where the hogs had roamed up the greenward, and in fact, a large number of them were busy at the time, marring the beauty of the quiet cemetery. Would it not be well for the voters of the city to make a note of this to-day, when voting for or against the hog ordinance.

The Houston.

And Texas Central and Missouri, Kansas and Texas roads have made arrangements by which they are enabled to run Pullman Sleeping and Drawing Room Cars through to Chicago and St. Louis without change. This is the only route through, without change of cars, and brings Texas in direct communication with the outside world, and places her within two days' travel of the great Western cities.

Messrs. Peterson & Blaffer.

We invite attention to the large double-column advertisement in to-day's paper of the above house. Peterson & Blaffer are no strangers to the trade that is being rapidly concentrated at this city. Throughout the whole frontier they are known as liberal, honest and fair dealers. They buy from none but first-class New York and New Orleans houses. Their goods are strictly first-class, and, dealing largely and buying for cash, they feel confident of their ability to offer to the trade, and to their other numerous patrons, the very best advantages of the market. Their new house, on the corner of Austin and Fourth streets, directly opposite the McClelland House, is one of the most elegantly fitted up and convenient places of business in the State. They extend a warm invitation to their old friends and customers to visit them in their new quarters. They challenge a comparison as to the price and quality with any similar establishment in the city, and freight added, with any house in Texas.

KENTUCKY LIBRARY CONCERT.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—The manager is desirous that every ticket holder in the Fourth Concert, which comes off in Public Library Hall on the 31st of March, shall be perfectly satisfied with the distribution of Gifts, which is to take place at that time. The distribution of $1,500,000, is an affair of such importance, that although the interest of the absent ticket holders will be faithfully cared for by the management, yet they would be glad for all to see and know each one for himself that everything is done which the most scrupulously exacting could ask, to make the distribution absolutely fair and impartial. All arrangements for the drawing on the part of the management are complete, and the ticket holders are invited to send delegates to a meeting to be held in the Public Library Building, on the 20th of March, to select a committee to co-operate with the committee appointed by the trustees to count and examine the tags, and see that every ticket is fairly represented in the drawing. The time is short, and whatever is to be done must be done promptly. Your cooperation in this matter is earnestly invited. Yours, THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Ag't and Manager, Pub. Lib. Ky.

Messrs. Moore & Sturgis.

The enterprising Bridge street grocers, are rapidly building up a splendid business. They are daily receiving large shipments of goods in their line, which are being sold at prices to compare favorably with the oldest houses in town. It will not do the buyer any harm to visit these young merchants and compare their prices and goods with the older houses in the trade.

See Ed Sturgis.

New double column advertisement in another column. Ed means business, and his numerous friends throughout this region of country know him, and when he talks business he is always in earnest. His beautiful new Bridge street store is becoming as widely known as his former stand. He invites his old frontier friends to call and see him. E. A. Sturgis is known as one who studies the interests of the farmer, and is content with a reasonable margin of profit. Blast him, he's a clever fellow, and if you don't believe it, go and see him and be convinced.

Base Ball.

All the first nine are earnestly requested to meet on the base ball grounds Thursday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. "Fun on hand."

DRYING & ALLIS.

Big splendid mattresses for $4. North corner of public square.

Fred Axling.

And Bergman, have got good cigars, and they are getting a large sale for them, as well as the incomparable XXXX of Burnham.

The Officials.

Sit round the courthouse with never a thing to do. Justice Massey's court, however, was in session, but the cases tried were trivial and unworthy of note.

MASONIC.

The members of Waco Lodge No. 92, A. F. & A. M., are summoned to attend a called meeting of the Lodge for special business at the Hall on Saturday evening, the 14th inst.

Gurley Lodge No. 337, and sojourning brethren are respectfully invited to attend. By order of the W. M. L. A. HIGHTOWER, Secretary.

RAZOR BACKS TO THE GRAVE.

Among the attractions offered by Jack Pierce, the Auction Man of Waco, are fourteen head of thoroughbred Berkshire hogs. We have seen them, and they are busters.

Jack has cash customers for fifteen head of good medium mules, and sells them for a song. So bring along your ponies too, and Platt will try them on.

BRIDGE NO. 10.

The stockholders of the Waco Bridge Company are requested to meet at the Court House on Friday, the 18th day of March, 1874, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing two directors and a clerk, and to consider and to act upon such other business as may come before them.

W. M. A. FOLK, President. Waco, March 7th, 1874.

"THE SPRING"

Time has come, gentle Annie, and, by the way, it is the very time to call at Jackson & Knight's Gallery for pictures of every description.

THE FLOATING BANNER.

The excitement is quite great on Austin Avenue, in fact, it should be, for S. Lyons & Cohn, who the banner floats, have already commenced receiving their large Spring Stock. If you ask for Linen, Loden Lawn, Nankook, Cross-barred Muslin, Domestic Goods of all kinds, Ladies' Collar Sets, Kid Gloves, and many other new Spring Goods, they have them—and so cheap at that. Ladies' Kid Gloves at 75 cents a pair, would look as if it was less than cost, but that is all they will ask for them. Just try them, ladies.

Country merchants will find a splendid stock to select from, and when the bill is made out have lots of money left.

Now, if any person in town, or in the country, does not believe it, let them go to S. Lyons & Cohn, on Austin Avenue, where the flag hangs, and see for themselves.

These men love to show and price you goods, and promise strict satisfaction. mar7D4t

Mr. S. M. After using three bottles I find myself entirely well, and I cheerfully give this to the public, hoping that others may see this and profit by my experience, and speedily seek relief in this truly wonderful medicine.
